The Ayeyarwady

Wonderous sights can be seen along the vast length of this life-sustaining river

RENOWNED FOR ITS BEAUTY AND TRANQUIL ATMOSPHERE, SAGAING IS HOME TO HUNDREDS OF MONASTERIES AND MEDITATION CENTERS.

THE AYEYARWADY

Witness to Myanmar's long and turbulent past, the Ayeyarwady River is a life-sustaining waterway celebrated in legend, song and literature. Rudyard Kipling's well-known poem, "The Road to Mandalay," refers not to a road at all but to this very river, which sweeps from the snow-capped Himalayas in the far north down the full length of the country until it empties into the Andaman Sea.

The Ayeyarwady played a key role during the rule of every Burmese king, and all of the country's royal capitals were once set along its banks. Thousands of temples, stupas and pagodas can still be seen along its great length, as well as exotic scenes that have endured for centuries – smiling women in bright sarongs, dark-robed monks gathering alms, rice farmers leading ox carts along the river. The essence of ancient Burma lingers on.

The 1,350-mile-long Ayeyarwady has an illustrious history. In the mid-19th century British colonial era, the river was one of the world's most popular waterways, and the Irrawaddy Flotilla Company's shallow draft paddle steamers greatly contributed to Myanmar's transformation into the "Rice Bowl of Asia." Years later when the Japanese invaded Myanmar during WWII, the company scuttled its entire 600-ship fleet to prevent the Axis forces from seizing it. In 1948, Burma gained its independence from Britain, changed its name, closed its borders and essentially slipped off the radar of the outside world.

Today, after more than half a century of self-imposed political isolation, Myanmar has re-emerged and welcomes visitors with open arms. Experiencing this enchanting country from the vantage of the mighty Ayeyarwady is a must on any world traveler's bucket list.

Myanmar possesses a gentle and unhurried way of life, one that is rapidly disappearing in today's ultra-modern world.

Myanmar

After many years of isolation, the “Land of the Golden Pagodas” awaits discovery once again

THE BAGAN ARCHEOLOGICAL ZONE HAS MORE THAN 2,200 STUPAS AND PAGODAS, MANY ADORNED WITH GOLD LEAF AND PRECIOUS JEWELS.

MYANMAR

Myanmar has an ancient culture, an incomparable collection of architectural wonders, and a deeply-rooted religious tradition that has endured for many centuries. One of the world's most secretive, mysterious and fascinating places, its rich and often tragic history has left an indelible mark on the Burmese landscape and its people.

Bagan

More than 2,200 sacred structures stretch across the broad plain of Bagan (Pagan), a magnificent cultural treasure trove on par with Cambodia's massive Angkor Wat temple complex. In the words of author Somerset Maugham, the temples, stupas and pagodas of this utterly spectacular place seem to "loom huge, remote and mysterious, like the vague recollections of a fantastic dream."

Mandalay

The "Golden City" of Mandalay is regarded as Myanmar's cultural heart, renowned for its master craftsmen and its patronage of the arts, particularly traditional dance and drama. The country's last royal capital and second largest city, Mandalay's riverside location was based on a Buddhist prophecy that said a great metropolis would one day be built at the foot of Mandalay Hill.

Mt. Popa

The stunningly beautiful shrine perched at the top of Mt. Popa, a tall sheer-sided volcanic plug, is considered the legendary home of nats, spirit gods worshipped by Burmese Buddhists. The 360° views from the summit (accessed via 777 steps) are truly remarkable, and well worth the effort it takes to get there.

Royal Cities

Four ancient royal cities lie a short distance from Mandalay, each possessing its own charm, character and noteworthy sights. Inwa (Ava) was the capital of the Burmese kingdom for more than 400 years. Amarapura has the world's longest teak bridge, perfect for a leisurely sunset stroll. Sagaing is famous for its monasteries and tranquil atmosphere. Mingun has a number of historic sites to explore, including the "unfinished pagoda" and a giant bronze bell.

Yangon

Myanmar's many years of isolation have allowed it to preserve a very strong and unique cultural identity. Yangon (Rangoon), the glittering "Garden City of the East," retains much of its colonial-era charm with cobblestone streets, tree-lined avenues and genteel Victorian architecture.

According to Nobel laureate Aung San Suu Kyi, there is "a revolution of the spirit taking place among the people of Burma."

This Golden Land

Marco Polo visited here, calling it a gilded place "alive with tinkling bells and the swishing sounds of monks' robes"

SHWEDAGON PAGODA IN YANGON IS THE WORLD'S OLDEST PAGODA AND THE MOST SACRED BUDDHIST SITE IN MYANMAR.

THIS GOLDEN LAND

Shwe is Burmese for “golden,” and many of Myanmar’s holiest sites rightfully incorporate this word into their names. The tradition of gilding Buddhist stupas and statuary started back in the 15th century and it is still considered an act of reverence to adorn sacred icons with wafer-thin layers of gold leaf.

On your journey along the Ayeyarwady, you will have an opportunity to see firsthand the amazing centuries-old methods still used in the production of gold leaf. Gold nuggets are flattened and laboriously pounded by hammer-wielding men until they are as delicate as lace. This “gold leaf” is cut into small squares and sold to Buddhist devotees, who seek to gain karmic merit by gilding sacred objects. Male visitors to Myanmar may also participate in this timeless ritual, a truly authentic and memorable experience.

Shwezigon Pagoda is the holiest pagoda in Bagan, built in the 11th century to enshrine several Buddhist relics, with an elegant bell-shaped dome that served as the prototype for all other stupas. An old Burmese tradition was used to determine a suitable location for the stupa: the relics were attached to the back of a white elephant, which was then left to wander freely. The spot where the elephant stopped became the site for this now world-famous pagoda.

Shwedagon Pagoda in Yangon is 2,500 years old and considered Myanmar’s most sacred and beautiful pagoda, containing literally hundreds of thousands of Buddha images and shimmering with 30 tons of gold leaf. Several hairs of Gautama Buddha and other priceless relics are protected deep inside its main stupa, which is topped by a jewel-encrusted spire. This pagoda is a spectacular once-in-a-lifetime sight that Kipling perfectly described as “a golden mystery...a beautiful winking wonder that blazed in the sun.”

Shwesandaw Pagoda was built by King Anawrahta in the late 11th century just outside Pyay. As its name suggests, the “Golden Hair Relics Shrine” has several sacred Buddhist relics enshrined in its base. Gautama Buddha is said to have preached a sermon on the site, so it now ranks among Myanmar’s most famed pilgrimage sites. Although damaged over the years by earthquakes, its golden stupa has survived intact and its upper levels offer a superb sunset view over Pyay and the surrounding area.

Myanmar is one of the world’s most religious countries, and most of the population practices a unique form of Theravada Buddhism.

Authentic Experiences

Myanmar is a country that has long evoked images of the mysterious and exotic. In today's increasingly frenetic world, Myanmar is a place where time moves at a decidedly different pace, a Golden Land of hidden wonders, natural beauty and laid-back charm. There is a sense of timelessness here, perhaps due to the profound influence that Buddhism has had on the gentle-spirited Burmese people.

It is said that it is impossible to comprehend Myanmar without having at least some understanding of the Buddhist principles that permeate every aspect of daily life. Buddhism arrived here in the 3rd century B.C. and more than half a million Burmese people now live as monks and nuns, making Myanmar one of the world's most religious countries.

MAHAMUNI BUDDHA

Visit this magnificent 12-foot tall statue of the Buddha in Mandalay, now completely covered by the faithful with a six-inch layer of precious gold leaf.

LACQUERWARE ARTISANS

Visit the workshops of master craftsmen in Old Bagan, where ultra-fine lacquerware is made using time-honored methods from the days of King Anawrahta.

U-BEIN BRIDGE

Take a stroll across Amarapura's picturesque U-Bein Bridge, the longest teak bridge in world and a popular spot for photographers, especially at sunset.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION

Immerse yourself in Myanmar's sights and sounds by taking a ride in a traditional form of transportation, such as a trishaw, ox cart or horse-drawn carriage.

The Burmese people hail from 135 diverse ethnic groups, and the country's unique form of Theravada Buddhism – practiced by nearly 90 percent of the population – is often credited for uniting them as a single nation. Our knowledgeable guides will be on hand throughout your journey to provide insights into the principles of Buddhism and the sacred icons created in its honor.

Myanmar is a magical and awe-inspiring destination. Our river cruise itineraries have been meticulously designed to showcase its many marvels and facilitate memorable and authentic experiences. You will have myriad opportunities to delve into your destination, passing back and forth between the centuries and encountering age-old traditions amidst a society embracing great cultural change.

THANAKA

Look for Burmese men, women and children who have adorned their faces with thanaka, a yellowish paste made from powdered tree bark that serves as a handy and all-natural sunblock.

SACRED SPACES

The sheer scale and magnitude of Myanmar's most magnificent religious sites, such as the Shwedagon Pagoda in Yangon, must be seen in person.

COLORFUL MARKETS

Feast your eyes upon an array of exotic produce, spices and exquisite Burmese handicrafts in open-air street markets throughout the country.

POTTERY VILLAGE

Visit Yandabo, a peaceful village known for its beautiful handcrafted terracotta wares, where you will see a pottery-making demonstration by local artisans.

THE AMAPURA

The custom-built AmaPura takes its name from the former royal capital of Amarapura (Sanskrit for “City of Immortality”). Land Experiences

YANGON, the capital of Burma for 120 years, is known as the “Garden City of the East” because of its tropical flowers, verdant parks and beautiful lakes. This historic waterfront city has an abundance of colonial-era structures that is unparalleled in Southeast Asia. To stroll along its tree-lined streets is often like stepping back in time, as you observe locals conversing in tea houses, typists-for-hire pecking away on vintage Underwoods, and young monks in somber robes patiently collecting their daily alms.

Founded in 1755, Yangon (“End of Conflict”) was little more than a fishing village with a famous pilgrimage site until it came under British control in 1855. Quickly transformed into a vibrant urban hub, Yangon became known as the “Pearl of the Orient.” Today, the city offers numerous historical and cultural attractions to explore, although many visitors discover that Yangon’s greatest charms are found in its quiet, tucked away places. Both of our river cruise itineraries include ample time to explore this colorful and fascinating city.

SHWEDAGON PAGODA

The massive 2,500-year-old Shwedagon Pagoda towers hundreds of feet above the city on a sacred hill. Considered Myanmar’s most beautiful religious monument, it is richly adorned with gold, diamonds and other precious gems.

BOGYOKE MARKET

Enjoy browsing for souvenirs at Bogyoke Aung San Market, renowned for its gold and silver jewelry, mother-of-pearl, precious gems, hand-rolled cigars, beautiful silks, handcrafted lacquerware and other traditional Burmese crafts.

KANDAWGYI LAKE

Yangon’s Royal Lake is set within a scenic 260-acre park, filled with gardens, restaurants, playgrounds and winding footpaths. The stone boat on the east side of the lake is a floating restaurant in the form of a mythical creature covered with gold.

RECLINING BUDDHA

The Chaukhtatgyi Temple houses a six-story high reclining Buddha, one of the largest and most graceful of its kind. With its ornately decorated feet and blissful expression, this exquisite icon symbolizes the end of life and the attainment of Nirvana.

INLE LAKE, located high on a plateau and surrounded by mountains, is a place of dazzling natural beauty, offering some of Myanmar's dreamiest scenery and most unique sights. For many guests, an optional post-cruise sojourn at this idyllic place is the perfect culmination of their adventures in Myanmar. Peaceful and filled with countless wonders to see and explore – from centuries-old monasteries to wish-fulfilling Buddha statues to fascinating archeological sites – Inle Lake requires a stay of several days to fully appreciate.

This long, narrow lake is utterly pristine, with crystal clear waters that produce an abundance of fish. The indigenous Intha people ("Sons of the Lake") dwell in thatched houses perched over the water and make a living from fishing and farming crops grown on floating islands tethered to the lakebed. They are also regarded as highly skilled artisans, producing beautiful hand-woven silk, fabrics, metal jewelry and traditional cheroot cigars. For details about our optional 4-night post-cruise Inle Lake/Yangon extension, please see page 23.

INTHA FISHERMAN

The fishermen of Inle Lake are famous for their delightfully eccentric one-legged rowing technique, which allows them to keep one hand free to scoop fish into their nets. A dexterous feat that truly must be seen to be believed!

YWAMA FLOATING MARKET

At the vibrant and colorful weekly floating market in Ywama village, dozens of women in conical hats fill their canoes with locally grown fruits, vegetables and beautiful handcrafted wares for sale.

PHAUNGDAWOO PAGODA

Inle Lake is richly endowed with pagodas and monasteries, such as Phaungdawoo Pagoda, considered one of the three most sacred shrines in Myanmar. Prayers to the Buddhist icons housed inside are said to always be answered.

CULTURAL DIVERSITY

Female members of the Padaung ethnic minority can often be seen with long coils of heavy brass rings worn around their necks. Myanmar is home to 135 distinct ethnic groups, each with its own culture, dialect and traditional dress.

YOUR ITINERARY (CRUISE FROM MANDALAY TO YANGON)

Day 1, ARRIVE IN YANGON, MYANMAR. Welcome to Yangon, former capital of Burma and known as the “Garden City of the East” for its lush tropical setting. After checking in to your hotel, the rest of the day is at your leisure.

Day 2, YANGON – MANDALAY – EMBARKATION. Check out of your hotel after breakfast and transfer to the airport for a short flight to Mandalay, the last royal capital of the Burmese kingdom. After boarding the AmaPura, meet your fellow travelers at a Welcome Dinner. (B,L,D)

Day 3, MANDALAY – MINGUN – MANDALAY – AMARAPURA – SAGAING. Today we will depart for nearby Mingun, site of a 12-foot high bronze bell and the massive ruins of Pathodawgyi (the “unfinished pagoda”), originally intended to be 499 feet high. Although only a third of it was ever completed, it remains the world’s largest brick pagoda. You will also see Myatheindan Pagoda, built in 1816 and painted white as a representation of the mythological Buddhist mountain, Mount Meru. This afternoon, your Mandalay city tour includes some of the city’s top sights, including the bronze Mahamuni Buddha, now covered by the faithful with a thick layer of gold leaf. Visit the workshops of craftsmen making thin sheets of gold, and stop at Kuthodaw Pagoda (said to contain the world’s largest book, Buddhist scriptures inscribed on 729 marble slabs) and Shwenandaw monastery, an architectural masterpiece filled with woodcarvings. Later, take an excursion to see the world’s longest teak bridge, the U Bein Bridge in nearby Amarapura. (B,L,D)

Day 4, SAGAING – INWA. The ship stops today at the former royal capital of Sagaing, famous for its hundreds of monasteries and tranquil atmosphere. Visit Soonuonyashin

Pagoda and a local monastic school. Continue on to Inwa (Ava), capital of the Burmese kingdom for more than four centuries, where you will see the sights in a horse-drawn carriage. Highlights include the Bagaya monastery, built entirely of teak. (B,L,D)

Day 5, YANDABO – BAGAN. Arrive in Yandabo, a peaceful village known for its finely crafted terracotta wares. See a pottery-making demonstration by local artisans as well as glimpses of typical village life. Later, your ship’s Sun Deck offers the perfect vantage point for your first glimpse of the plain of Bagan, one of the world’s most awe-inspiring archeological sites. Upon arrival in Bagan, you will have two tour options. Choose to visit an observation tower where you will enjoy a beautiful sunset while sipping on a refreshing cocktail. Afterwards, transfer to a local temple and participate in a candle lighting ceremony blessed by local monks. Or you may choose to watch the sunset from the top of Guni Temple instead, and then meet with your fellow travelers at the temple for the candle lighting ceremony. (B,L,D)

Day 6, BAGAN. Your full day in Bagan offers you three sightseeing choices. The first is climbing to the observation deck (250 steps) or the top (777 steps) of Mount Popa, legendary home of animist nat spirits. Afterwards, stop for lunch and enjoy a tasting of Jaggery, a palm sugar that is made from the Totty Palm Tree. Alternatively, you may enjoy free time to shop and explore other attractions at the Mount Popa Resort. Your third option is an excursion to some of the most distinctive pagodas in the Bagan Archaeological Zone, like Shwezigon Pagoda and the Ananda temple. Afterwards, you will spend some time at the lively Nyaunggoo market, where you can search for local handicrafts, colorful textiles and other unique souvenirs. Later, visit the 13th century Gubyaulgyi Temple, which is situated near the Wetkyi-inn Village, and the Pyathada temple. (B,L,D)

Day 7, TANT KYI TAUNG – SALAY. Join your fellow passengers for an excursion up Tant Kyi Taung Mountain to visit its famous pagoda, built in the year 1059 by King Anawrahta and known to house a sacred Buddha relic. The ship then cruises on to Salay, a small community that boasts more than 50 monasteries. Visit Yokesonekyauung, built in 1882 and the region’s oldest surviving wooden monastery, famous for its wood carvings and collection of religious artifacts. You will also see a colonial-era house and the Man Pagoda, which contains the largest lacquer Buddha in Myanmar. (B,L,D)

Day 8, MAGWE. Further downstream today, you will visit MaGwe and take a panoramic coach tour to see the Mud Volcano in Minbu, the mythical home of fire breathing dragons living deep beneath the earth. You’ll also see the General Aung San “Bogyoke” Statue and the Myathalon Pagoda, situated on the banks of the river. (B,L,D)

Day 9, MINH LA – THA YET MYO. Your day begins in Minhla, the site of a great battle during the Second Anglo-Burmese War. A short walk brings you to a Colonial Fort, built by Italian engineers to keep British forces out of Burma. Continue on to Tha Yet Myo, a pleasant town that once guarded the border between Royal Burma and British Burma after the Second Anglo-Burmese War of 1855. It has a number of well-preserved colonial-style houses and buildings dating from the mid-1800s, as well as one of the oldest golf courses in all of Myanmar. Take a walk through the greens of this historic golf course and enjoy a visit to one of the oldest post offices in the region. (B,L,D)

Day 10, PYAY. After the ship arrives in Pyay, take a walking tour of this former capital that once served as an important junction between Lower and Upper Burma and home to more than 80 gilded pagodas. During your city tour you will see the ancient Sri Kestra City Gate, enjoy a visit to the Sri Kestra Museum and the Payagi Pagoda. (B,L,D)

Day 11, MYAN AUNG. As the ship departs this morning, enjoy wonderful views of the Akauk Mountains and their river-facing cliff carvings. Later today you will arrive in Myan Aung, a quiet riverside town filled with well-preserved colonial-era houses. Admire the town’s Colonial Dyke, a great example of 19th century British engineering. The region’s rice production relies heavily on this flood control and irrigation system. You’ll also enjoy a walking tour through a nearby rice paddy. (B,L,D)

Day 12, AING TA LOTE. The ship cruises through the Ayeyarwady Delta region today, stopping to visit the small town of Aing Ta Lote. Here you will have a great opportunity to explore rural Myanmar. Take a walking tour of the charming village, visit with locals and catch a glimpse of unspoiled country life. (B,L,D)

Day 13, DA NYU PHYU – MAUBIN. Today you will explore the town of Da Nyu Phyu, site of a Burmese uprising during the First Anglo-Burmese war, on a trishaw ride. You will visit a local monastery and the tomb of General Bandoola, commander of the Royal Burmese Armed Forces. Afterwards, head out to a cheroot workshop and learn about this distinct cigar making trade. (B,L,D)

Day 14, MAUBIN – YANGON. Enjoy a sightseeing tour of Maubin, a small delta village and the birthplace of Myanmar’s first head of state, Dr. Ba Maw. You will also have time to visit the local market before departing for Yangon where you will visit Shwedagon Pagoda, one of Myanmar’s most beautiful and revered religious sites. (B,L,D)

Day 15, YANGON. Your full-day tour begins with a visit to the city center and Sule Pagoda, followed by a photo stop at scenic Kandawgyi Lake. Shop for handicrafts, clothing and local delicacies at Bogyoke Aung San Market (Scott’s Market), and explore the massive reclining Buddha at Chaukhtatgyi Temple. Tonight, enjoy a Farewell Dinner on board with your fellow travelers. (B,L,D)

Day 16, YANGON – DISEMBARKATION. After breakfast on board, bid farewell to Myanmar and prepare for your homeward journey or your optional post extension to Inle Lake. (B)

Obtaining required visas and any other required travel documentation, and assuring these are complete and correct in all ways, is the sole responsibility of each participant. We are not in a position to obtain or verify the accuracy or completeness of any participant’s visa or other required documentation and shall not be responsible or liable for delay or missed portion of any part of the itinerary or other problems resulting from the participant lacking the appropriate travel documentation.

Travel Documents: Only after receipt of full payment, travel documents (including airline confirmation information, if applicable) will be sent by regular ground delivery (US & Canada), approximately 3-4 weeks prior to departure. (Delay in final payment will delay delivery of travel documents.) Expedited delivery may be possible for an additional charge of $25 or the full amount of expedited services, whichever is greater.

FLIGHTS & AIRPORT TRANSFERS

Flight Schedules & Airfares: AmaWaterways offers special airfares based on the flight and seat availability of contracted carriers. We are able to accept a traveler’s choice of preferred air carrier, flight schedule, and some deviations so long as the requests are made at the time of booking the airline reservation. To hold/confirm an airline reservation, the airlines require your full legal name as it appears on your passport. For contract airline fares a deposit of $350 per person (economy class tickets) or $600 per person (business/first-class tickets) is required to secure the flight schedule and quoted price. Published airfare prices require full payment at the time of reservation. Once the airfare deposit or full payment is received your airline tickets will be issued and any changes will be subject to penalty if not cancelled within 24 hours of ticketing. Should the name on your airline reservation not match your passport exactly, your airline reservation will have to be cancelled, full penalties will be assessed and your reservation will have to be recreated subject to market pricing at the time of the new reservation.

Air tickets are economy class, unless otherwise requested and additional charge for upgrade is paid, and are issued pursuant to the terms and conditions of the relevant airline(s). Airlines require your name to appear on your airline ticket exactly as it appears on your passport. We shall not be responsible or liable for consequences of name on an airline reservation and passport not matching exactly. We shall not be responsible or liable for costs resulting from airline schedule changes, lost air ticket, delay, disruption or cancelled flight; lost baggage or missed connections.

Changes: Airline tickets issued by AmaWaterways have restrictions. For example, they cannot be reissued, transferred, or exchanged. Any changes made to an airline ticket, including minor name corrections, will incur a minimum $350 per ticket change fee plus any additional increases in the cost of the airfare. A change or refund request must be made through us, but may not be possible. For example, some airline tickets are non-refundable.

Limitation on Special Requests & Frequent Flier Numbers: As a courtesy, we may try to relay a request for seat assignments, meal requests, frequent flyer numbers, or other special assistance to the particular airline. The sole authority to grant such requests rest with the airline and is not under the control of AmaWaterways. Whether or not we relay a request to an airline, you or your travel agent must always confirm directly with the airline regarding any such requests. To insure you receive proper credit on your frequent flyer account, we recommend you provide your frequent flyer number to the airline at the time of check-in. Please note our airfare prices use special contract fares that may not allow you to receive credit on your frequent flier account nor may they allow you to use miles to upgrade to a higher class.

Baggage: Please check with the airline regarding their baggage allowance. Most airlines limit checked bags to either one or two pieces per person, and limit carry-on baggage to one piece per person, and weight and size restrictions apply. There are strict luggage restrictions for our programs in Africa; please ask for details. We shall not be responsible or liable for costs or consequences of participant exceeding the airline's baggage restrictions, or for loss, theft, damage or delay to participant's baggage.

Airport Transfers: Guests purchasing transoceanic airfare through us may qualify for complimentary group airport transfers on a scheduled arrival between the airport and the ship or hotel, and on a scheduled departure between the hotel or the ship and airport. Airport transfers included in your airfare package will be reflected on your travel confirmation and on your travel documents. If airport transfers are not reflected on your confirmation, AmaWaterways is not responsible for providing airport transfer service to you. Please note: our group airport transfer service may involve some waiting time between the time your flight lands and the time you arrive at the ship or hotel. All guests making their own airfare arrangements are solely responsible for arranging their transportation to/from the airport. Individual airport transfers can be purchased for those guests who are scheduled to arrive/depart on our itinerary dates, please ask for details.

These may include, but are not limited to, providing accommodation on the docked ship and/or substituting ground arrangements. An effort will be made to try to arrange elements of the cruise and cruise tour similar to those originally planned, but the level of similarity may vary.
