THE AMAWATERWAYS DIFFERENCE

Ask any of our guests about their AmaWaterways cruise and you will hear a story about what makes us special. You might hear about how the staff on board knew their names, or how they were treated like family, or how we went the extra mile to ensure that they enjoyed their time on board and ashore to the fullest. At AmaWaterways, our mission is to provide our guests with the best travel experiences possible, and this desire comes across in every aspect of our river cruise vacations. From unparalleled service, to innovative ships, to immersive shore excursions that can only be delivered by a true destination expert, AmaWaterways cruises are a traveler's dream. We truly love having our guests on board, and it shows.

Our company was founded by three travel industry pioneers, all of whom contribute extensive expertise in river cruising. President Rudi Schreiner introduced the concept of modern-day river cruises to the marketplace in 1994. Executive Vice President Kristin Karst brings years of experience in sales and customer service on an international level. Vice President of Sales Gary Murphy, son of our late co-founder Jimmy Murphy, offers a wealth of knowledge from his long record of success in the travel industry. Together, they have made AmaWaterways the most distinctive line in the industry and they continue to have a hands-on approach to the management of the company.

Even though we have grown tremendously since we first started in 2002, AmaWaterways remains family-owned and operated. It is this style of management that allows us to offer the highest levels of service and attention to detail that make an AmaWaterways river cruise stand out from the rest.

Our friendly and professional team is eager to welcome you on board and make you feel right at home.

THE HIGHEST RATED SHIPS IN EUROPE

In the first-ever Berlitz River Cruising in Europe travel guide, more than 280 ships were rated based on hardware, accommodation, cuisine, service and other miscellaneous features. All eleven AmaWaterways ships that were assessed earned the highest rating given and received higher scores than any other cruise line. The AmaPrima was rated the highest of any ship, followed closely by the rest of our European fleet.

Unique Wine Experiences

An AmaWaterways Wine Cruise is designed to provide travelers with immersive experiences related to the regions they are visiting. As with our standard river cruises, guests have the opportunity to join tours and excursions that highlight the sights in each port of call. In addition to these city tours, there are a number of wine-related activities that reveal more about Europe's famed wine regions, local epicurean traditions, winemaking, and of course, wine tastings.

Each cruise is hosted by a qualified wine expert, who usually brings hand-selected wines on board that are served during meals and at tastings. Some wines come from the expert's own winery and other varieties are sourced from local wineries located along the cruise itinerary. The wine host will recommend food and wine pairings, lead discussions and hold tastings during your cruise.

RENOWNED WINE REGIONS

Explore famous grape-growing areas, such as the Wachau Valley in Austria, that are steeped in winemaking history and tradition.

LOCAL VINEYARDS

Experience stunning vineyards up-close on exclusive excursions. In the fall, during the grape harvest, the land takes on an amazing array of vivid colors.

WINE EXPERTS

Each cruise is hosted by a wine expert who brings select wines on board and leads discussions about production and consumption.

Enjoy exclusive tours to historic wine cellars where guests participate in tastings and conversations with the local owners.

Guests enjoy a number of tours at local vineyards and wineries, where vintners and growers will not only walk you through the winemaking process – they will give you a taste of their special varieties, too. These authentic encounters add to the rich tapestry of local culture, making for memorable experiences for wine enthusiasts and dabblers alike. Your taste buds are in for even more excitement in our sophisticated dining venues on board, where our expert chefs pair fine wines with award-winning cuisine for the ultimate epicurean experience. You will also enjoy sumptuous dining events, where each course is served with a wine pairing hand-selected by your host.

The Garonne

...the Dordogne and the Gironde Estuary wind through the famous world of gourmet flavor known as the Bordeaux region - home to the most highly coveted blended wines in the entire world.

BORDEAUX, FRANCE

THE GARONNE, DORDOGNE AND GIRONDE ESTUARY

In the corner of southwestern France, the Garonne and Dordogne rivers merge together to form the Gironde Estuary that naturally divides the famous Bordeaux region into Left and Right banks. Our Taste of Bordeaux itinerary takes you to experience the most impressive winegrowing areas and their signature blends.

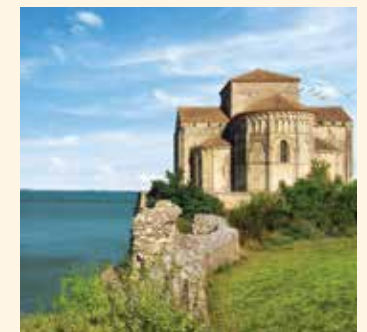

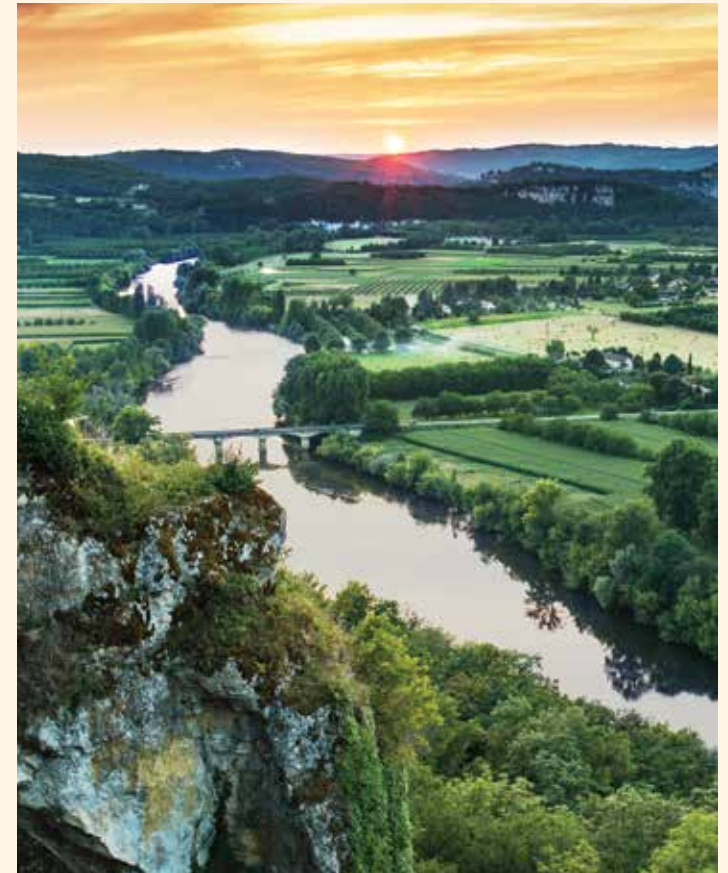

Bordeaux is the largest controlled wine region in France, made up of several subregions. Each subregion has its own strictly governed appellation, unique climate, and terroir that define it. Unlike most wines around the world, the quality of Bordeaux wine is determined by these factors rather than the grape varietal. Producers combine many grape types together to create food-loving blends. While Bordeaux is acclaimed for its legendary red blends, the small percentage of white blends from this region also make a big impression. The left and right banks of the river have different soil types that bring these exceptional blends to life.

Left Bank

The flatter, gravelly lands of the left bank embrace the heat of the sun south of the Gironde, giving life to many rich red blends and sweet white blends – like those of the Médoc and Sauternes regions. Dark fruit, full-bodied Cabernet Sauvignons rule this side of the river, blended with Merlot, Cab Franc and Petit Verdot grapes.

Right Bank

The limestone and clay soils of the right bank are perfect for Merlot, the most popular grape used as a base for blends in Bordeaux. Prestigious appellations like Bourg and Saint Emilion produce some of the best Merlot based blends that are combined with Cabernet, and other grapes, to achieve significant structure and supple fruit flavors.

Bordeaux's perfectly carved countryside and historic landmarks will take your breath away.

TASTE OF BORDEAUX

SPEND 2 NIGHTS IN PARIS, FOLLOWED BY AN ENCHANTING 7-NIGHT CRUISE ROUNDTrip FROM BORDEAUX, ENDING WITH 2 NIGHTS IN THE LOIRE VALLEY AND 1 NIGHT IN PARIS
13 DAYS · TRAVEL TO PARIS & RETURN FROM PARIS

Begin with a two-night stay in Paris, the magical “City of Light,” and enjoy a panoramic tour of the city’s top sights. Continue on to Bordeaux, the capital of Aquitaine in Southwestern France and one of the world’s undisputed wine capitals. You’ll discover stately chateaux, abundant vineyards and stunning scenery as you sail along the Garonne and Dordogne rivers and the Gironde estuaries, calling upon port cities like Cadillac, Saint Emilion and Libourne. Enjoy tastings of some of the region’s most distinguished wines and visit notable sights before going on to the Loire Valley for two nights and then concluding with an overnight stay in Paris.

WINE MATTERS

Sauternes

Sauternes blends account for a very small amount of the wine production in Bordeaux, but contain a great amount of flavor. These highly sought-after wines are made from various grape varieties, are available in many styles, and achieve a mouthwatering balance of sweet and tart. Their notes of rich honey, peach, apricot and nuts pair wonderfully with savory French cuisine.

SAUTERNES SHOWN WITH FRENCH CUISINE

Bordeaux Wine Labels

When you take a look at the wine labels here, something seems to be missing - the type of grape. That’s because, in Bordeaux, blends rule the world and the grape variety simply isn’t as important as where the grapes are grown. So, rather than being named “Cabernet Sauvignon” or “Merlot,” you will find that these wines are named after the château and appellation they come from.

VINEYARDS IN ST. EMILION, FRANCE

The Seine

Inspirational sights, famous landmarks and authentic Champagne are just a few of the amazing things you will indulge in along the Seine River.

THE SEINE

The curvy nature of the Seine River can be disorienting when you're in Paris. Not to worry, just remember to face downstream so you can tell the Left bank from the Right. Our Paris & Normandy cruise itinerary is about as romantic as it gets, beginning with views of the art-inspiring "City of Light" that morph into lush countryside and historic Normandy beaches. With countless vineyards close by, France's second largest waterway allows us to sample some of the country's most renowned wines and ciders.

The wine variety that instantly characterizes northern France comes from the Champagne region, about 90 miles east of Paris. Stemming from chalky soils and cool temperatures, these sparkling varieties produce a sweet effervescence and unparalleled quality that merit exclusive classification as the one-and-only wine known as "Champagne."

Another specialty drink is found closer to the English Channel. Normandy's fruit-filled orchards are picked and pressed into a rich cider brandy called Calvados. Made from over 170 apple and pear varieties, this rustic spirit is distilled twice and barrel-aged for at least two years before bottling. The result is a palate-pleasing liqueur bursting with complex apple elements and hints of cinnamon spice.

Ignite your palate with scrumptious wines from France's renowned wine regions.

PARIS & NORMANDY

ENJOY A 7-NIGHT SEINE RIVER VOYAGE THROUGH THE HEART OF NORMANDY, FOLLOWED BY 2 NIGHTS IN ROMANTIC PARIS, THE "CITY OF LIGHT"

10 DAYS · TRAVEL TO PARIS & RETURN FROM PARIS

Begin your river cruise in très romantique Paris, a city split by the Seine into Right and Left Banks. Cruise to Vernon for an excursion to Chateau de Bizy. Then visit the harbor town of Honfleur, immortalized in countless Impressionist paintings, or travel to Fécamp, home of the famous Benedictine liqueur. You'll explore the Normandy Beaches of WWII or venture deep into Calvados country to taste the region's famous apple brandy. Enjoy a visit to the city of Rouen, where Joan of Arc was martyred before continuing on to Les Andelys, site of King Richard the Lionheart's Château Gaillard. Conclude your cruise back in Paris, where an optional two-night stay includes a visit to the Wine Museum and a wine tasting.

WINE MATTERS

Dom Pérignon

Contrary to popular myth, the Benedictine monk Dom Pérignon did not invent the "champagne method" for making sparkling wine. A cellar master at the Abbey in Hautvillers in northeastern France, Dom Pérignon was the first to blend grapes in such a way as to improve the quality of wines. His legacy endures in the form of a prestigious Champagne from Moët & Chandon that bears his name.

AUTHENTIC FRENCH CHAMPAGNE

Calvados

Calvados is an apple brandy from the Normandy region of France with a long history dating back to the mid-1500s. Calvados producers often use over one hundred specially grown and selected varieties of apples and pears, which are harvested, pressed into juice and fermented into a dry cider. The liquid is aged in barrels for two years, resulting in a potent liquor with nearly forty percent alcohol content.

NOTRE DAME CATHEDRAL, PARIS

The Rhone

Enjoy magnificent scenery and glasses filled with prestigious red and white wines as you cruise through the Rhone Valley.

A RIVERSIDE VILLAGE AND VINEYARDS
ON THE HILLS OF THE CÔTE DU RHONE AREA

THE RHONE

The Rhone River makes its first appearance in the Swiss Alps and then runs through the heart of France to join the Mediterranean Sea. Besides providing captivating views of medieval towns and colorful landscapes, it connects the dots between thousands of vineyards from Lyon to Avignon. Our Provence & Spain itinerary takes you through this prized wine-producing region in southeastern France, known across the globe as the Rhone Valley.

The valley traces the path of the river for almost 150 miles, hypnotizing travelers with grape-covered vines gripping to its steep sides. Since it's so large, the climates vary greatly from north to south – as does the soil and wine quality. Thus, the Rhone is divided at the town of Valence into two worlds of wine: the Northern Rhone and the Southern Rhone.

What the Northern Rhone lacks in terms of size it makes up for with prestige. Its continental climate and granite soils fuel the exceptional quality achieved by the noble vines in this region. Syrah grapes, like those used in the famous Hermitage wines, are so impressive that it's the only red grape variety allowed to be grown here. Some appellations allow a limited percentage of Viognier, Marsanne and Roussanne white grapes to be used for notable blends and deliciously rare whites.

A warmer climate is enjoyed in the Southern Rhone, with hot summers and mild winters. The larger sub-region is responsible for nearly 95% of the entire region's wine, including a wide range of everyday whites, rosés and Grenache-based red blends from the Côtes du Rhone appellation. And even though the south develops many common wines, they also create a variety of powerful, high-quality reds and whites in areas like Châteauneuf-du-Pape.

Stunning scenery and iconic sights are discovered at every turn as you journey along the Rhone river.

WINE MATTERS

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

From 1308 until 1388, the headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church was relocated from Rome to Avignon. During that time, the papal courts developed a taste for the local wine and promoted viticulture throughout the region. Wines from this region came to be known first as Vin du Pape and later as Châteauneuf-du-Pape. To this day, the papal symbol of crossed keys can be found on every bottle produced there.

CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE

Beaujolais Nouveau

Every year on the third of November, more than a million cases of Beaujolais Nouveau are rushed to Paris as French vintners race to see whose wine will be the first uncorked at midnight. Over the past few decades, this annual tradition has become something of a national sport. French winemakers also ship this much anticipated wine across the world.

The Douro

Fall in love with the rugged beauty of Portugal's Douro River Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

THE DOURO

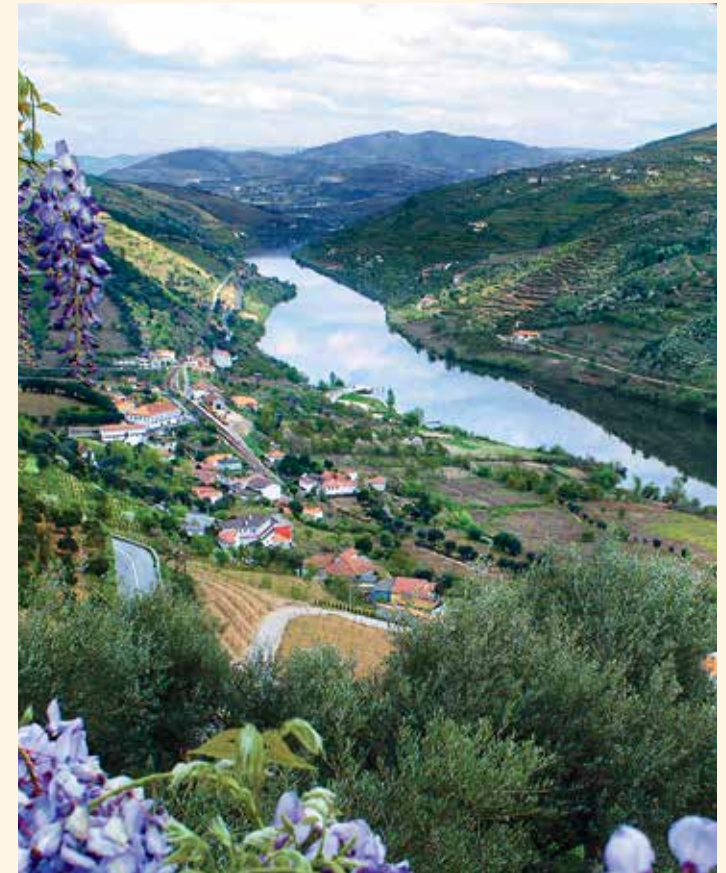

Land near a river, and naturally protected by mountain ranges, inspired winemakers to plant vineyards along the Douro, but wild landscapes and nutrient-poor soil made this an extremely difficult task. The birthplace of port wine would simply not exist today if it hadn't been for the centuries of determined winegrowers who laboriously carved rows of vines into the steep, dramatic terrain.

Their efforts proved worthwhile. Angled, rocky terrain just so happens to be ideal for the growth of grapes. Over the years, the magnitude of the Douro Valley wine region has grown remarkably and it is now divided into three parts. Our Enticing Douro itinerary cruises through all three sub-regions, giving you a taste of Northern Portugal's famous ports and table wines.

Baixo Corgo lies closest to the Atlantic. While it's the smallest of the three regions, it has more than 33,000 acres of vineyards and yields the largest cultivation of grape vines. Rainfall and ocean-fresh air help nourish the soil. The vineyards threaded through these drastic slopes give life to rich, tawny ports, red and white table wines and sparkling Vinho Verde from the Minho Provence.

Cima Corgo is home to a drier climate and proves to be the most fruitful region. The 50,000 acres of vineyards that cling to the Douro's heartland produce remarkable, long-lasting table wines and ports like those of the Vintage variety in Pinhao.

Douro Superior is the easternmost sub-region. Its dry conditions, slate-like soil and continental climate give life to some of the finest, most impressive Vintage Ports in all of Portugal.

The Douro Valley's intense, vineyard-covered landscapes give life to the one and only port wines.

11 DAYS · TRAVEL TO LISBON & RETURN FROM PORTO

Spend three nights in Lisbon before transferring to Porto to begin your Douro River wine cruise. The Douro is lined with lush vineyards and tranquil villages, and the entire region has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its traditional wine making methods. Taste authentic Port wine in Porto, and then journey inland to the beautiful countryside of Trás-os-Montes for a special dinner at the Alpendurada Monastery. You'll also tour the historic Palacio de Mateus, the ancient city of Lamego and Salamanca, a UNESCO World Heritage Site located at the center of Spain's Castilla y León region. In Pinhão, a center of port wine production, you'll enjoy a private dinner at a local Quinta. Your Douro river journey concludes back in Porto.

WINE MATTERS

Making Port Wine

The process used to make Port wine depends on brandy being added to partially fermented grape must - the juice that contains the fruit, seeds and stems. This halts fermentation, leaving sugar in the mixture and results in a sweeter wine with a higher alcohol content. This vinification process was discovered in 1678 and is still used to this day. Ruby, Tawny and Vintage are three of the most prevalent styles produced.

PORT WINE VARIETIES

Vinho Verde

One of northern Portugal's most famous wines is called Vinho Verde, which translates as "young wine." Intended to be enjoyed within a year of bottling, these distinct wines are created from several local grape varieties. While the unique, aromatic and effervescent whites are wildly popular, the fresh and fruity rosés, and rich reds, are also a delight.

PORT WINE VINEYARDS IN THE DOURO REGION

The Danube

See architectural masterpieces and taste exceptional white wines from the renowned Wachau Valley region.

THE DANUBE

Europe's second largest river begins in Germany and touches ten countries before emptying into the Black Sea. Brilliant architectural masterpieces and vine-strung hillsides on the Danube River have inspired artistic creations for hundreds of years. The Romantic Danube and Melodies of the Danube itineraries journey through Germany, Austria, Slovakia and Hungary so our guests can experience some of the most celebrated wines and sights in the heartland of Europe.

Over 3,700 acres of terraced vineyards rise from Austria's illustrious Wachau Valley. Located between the towns of Melk and Krems, this cooler-climate wine region brings a wide variety of refreshing, peppery white-grape wines to fruition. Epicureans and connoisseurs flock here to try their terrific food-pairing abilities.

Grüner Veltliner is considered to be the most important grape in Austria. Grown in loess soils by the river's edge, these favored wines offer aromatic stone fruit flavors reminiscent of the terroir. Riesling, the second most popular grape, loves rocky inclines - so it is extensively sewn into the rich hillside. Fruity notes and floral scents surface from these unique whites.

Immersive tours deliver unique cultural experiences and a taste of local life.

WINE MATTERS

Wine Legs

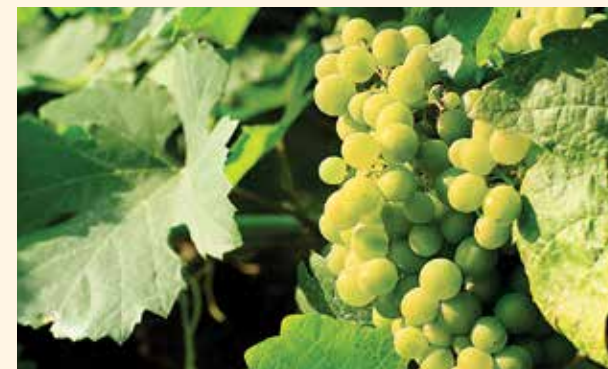

"Wine Legs," "Tears of Wine" and "Church Windows" are all charming descriptions of the droplets that form in a ring near the top of a glass of wine. The drops continuously form and fall in rivulets back into the liquid, a phenomenon indicative of the alcohol content in the wine. Some people believe these rivulets can be interpreted much as a fortuneteller might read tea leaves.

"WINE LEGS"

Grüner Veltliner

The Wachau Valley has gained world-wide recognition for their Grüner Veltliner white grape variety. Planted throughout Austria's vineyards, these coveted vines bring yellow-green berries to fruition. These wines achieve many levels of quality and taste, ranging from acidic and zesty in their youth to complex and nutty as they age. One thing that these varieties have in common is their ability to compliment meals.

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

The Mosel

...the Rhine and Main rivers are where you'll discover some of the steepest vineyards and most celebrated Riesling wines in all of Europe.

THE MOSEL, RHINE AND MAIN RIVERS

Historic villages, medieval mansions, and towering hillsides wrapped in vineyards are just a few of the amazing things that overlook the river's edge from Nuremberg to Luxembourg. Our Europe's Rivers & Castles itinerary takes you through the Mosel, Rhine and Main rivers to discover some of Europe's most fascinating scenery while dabbling in the remarkable wines grown in Germany.

For over one thousand years, a wide variety of tantalizing wines have been surfacing from the special soils of the Franconia region, alongside the Main River in Eastern Germany. These grapevines benefit from a continental climate with a Mediterranean influence, which is ideal for growing grapes. Both dry, fruity white wines and rare, decadent reds are made with superb quality here.

Even more delightful wines are found in the famed Upper Middle Rhine Valley, also known as the Rhine Gorge. Slate soils combined with a semi-continental climate have proven to be a recipe for winegrowing success for the vineyards of this region. The results are high-quality, delightful white wine varieties, and some very fine reds, that are sure to impress any palate.

Some of the world's steepest vineyard slopes, and best Riesling wines, are located in the Mosel River Valley region. Slopes like these offer the vines optimal exposure to sunlight and protection from harsh weather conditions. Blue Devonian slate, red slate and quartzite soils give these wines a distinct mineral element. There is nothing quite like sipping on a fragrantly sweet Mosel Riesling - which is why many connoisseurs consider these wines to be amongst the finest white wines ever created.

Colorful towns, steep vineyards and imposing castles fill the landscape of Germany's wine regions.

13 DAYS · TRAVEL TO PRAGUE & RETURN FROM PARIS OR REVERSE

WINE MATTERS

Rauchbier

In English, it means "smoked beer." This traditional German beverage achieves a deliciously distinct and smoky flavor. For centuries, brewers have been drying malted barley over an open flame to create this unique taste. Bamberg, Germany is recognized for producing the best smoked beers in Europe.

SMOKED BEER

Müller-Thurgau

The second most popular white grape variety grown in Germany is a cross between the Riesling and the Madeleine Royale grape varieties. These wines bring a refreshingly youthful and crisp wine to the table, with a slight muscat taste.

REICHSBURG CASTLE OVERLOOKING THE MOSEL RIVER

The Rhine

Take an exciting exploration through the enchanting castles, vineyards and wineries of the Rhine Valley.

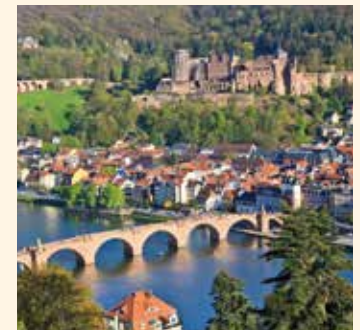

THE RHINE

Castles from ancient empires and steep vineyards sprout up from every angle, which makes cruising on the Rhine River feel like entering a scene out of a storybook. Actually, there are more charming castles along this river than any other in the world. The Enchanting Rhine itinerary winds through the Netherlands, Germany, France and Switzerland, diving deep into the history and wine regions of this vital waterway.

Prepare to be amazed by the white grapevines that coat the vertical surfaces of the Rhine Gorge in Germany, also known as the Upper Middle Rhine Valley. Famous for maintaining a quality focus, and grape-growing traditions dating back to Roman times, this area yields some of the country's best wines. The quality of their distinctly elegant Rieslings and fine, subtle reds are a result of the region's unique, slate-based soils and semi-continental climate.

The Alsace region in eastern France features exceptional wines as well. Here, sloping vineyards appreciate the balanced environmental conditions provided by the Vosges Mountains – sheltering the vines from excess sun exposure and heat. While pure, aromatic white varieties are the most popular Alsatian wines, select grapes used for rosés and reds also arise from these soils.

Discover charming medieval villages, cosmopolitan cities and stunning scenery along the Rhine river.

WINE MATTERS

Riesling

One of the world's most acclaimed grapes, Riesling has a strong personality, high acidity and ranges from dry to intensely sweet. The fruit thrives in Germany and Austria's cooler climates and is susceptible to "noble rot," a fungus that attacks certain ripe grapes and dehydrates them, giving the wine immense richness and sweetness.

Alsation Wine

Along with Germany and Austria, the Alsace region in France produces noteworthy dry Rieslings as well as highly aromatic Gewürztraminer wines and Crémant d'Alsace, a sparkling wine that has been gaining in popularity. Alsation wine is very much about aroma and distinct hints of peaches and flowers abound. Oak aging is not used in this region - rather, producers rely on ripeness and alcohol to enrich the texture and flavor.

Prices Do Not Include: Published prices do not include vessel fuel surcharges; passport and visa fees; baggage fees; port charges and fees; travel protection; vaccinations; laundry; additional food and beverages; optional excursions; gratuities or other items or services of a personal nature.

Passport and Visas: A valid passport is required for each participant. Passports must be valid for at least six (6) months after the scheduled return date to your home country. For travel to Asia, we require a copy of your valid passport prior to or at final payment. If not received at this time, embarkation may be denied and cancellation penalties will apply. Guests on the Vietnam/Cambodia Cruise & Land program must obtain a Multiple Entry Visa for Vietnam, as they will have two different points of entry into Vietnam, and a Single Entry Visa for Cambodia. Guests on the cruise only Vietnam/Cambodia itinerary will require a single entry visa for Vietnam and Cambodia. For travel to Africa, a valid passport with 8 open/non-stamped pages is required. At publication time, a visa is required for a US citizen to travel to Turkey, Vietnam, Cambodia, Myanmar, Kenya, Tanzania and Zimbabwe (as well as numerous other countries). Non-US citizens must consult the appropriate consulates regarding visa and other document requirements. Obtaining required visas and any other required travel documentation, and assuring these are complete and correct in all ways, is the sole responsibility of each participant. We are not in a position to obtain or verify the accuracy or completeness of any participant's visa or other required documentation and shall not be responsible or liable for delay or missed portion of any part of the itinerary or other problems resulting from the participant lacking the appropriate travel documentation.

Travel Documents: Only after receipt of full payment, travel documents (including airline confirmation information, if applicable) will be sent by regular ground delivery (US & Canada), approximately 3-4 weeks prior to departure. (Delay in final payment will delay delivery of travel documents.) Expedited delivery may be possible for an additional charge.

FLIGHTS & AIRPORT TRANSFERS

Flight Schedules & Airfares: AmaWaterways offers special airfares based on the flight and seat availability of contracted carriers. We are able to accept a traveler's choice of preferred air carrier, flight schedule, and some deviations so long as the requests are made at the time of booking the airline reservation. To hold/confirm an airline reservation, the airlines require your full legal name as it appears on your passport. For contract airline fares a deposit of $350 per person (economy class tickets) or $600 per person (business/first-class tickets) is required to secure the flight schedule and quoted price. Published airfare prices require full payment at the time of reservation. Once the airfare deposit or full payment is received your airline tickets will be issued and any changes will be subject to penalty if not cancelled within 24 hours of ticketing. Should the name on your airline reservation not match your passport exactly, your airline reservation will have to be cancelled, full penalties will be assessed and your reservation will have to be recreated subject to market pricing at the time of the new reservation.

Air tickets are economy class, unless otherwise requested and additional charge for upgrade is paid, and are issued pursuant to the terms and conditions of the relevant airline(s). Airlines require your name to appear on your airline ticket exactly as it appears on your passport. We shall not be responsible or liable for consequences of name on an airline reservation and passport not matching exactly. We shall not be responsible or liable for costs resulting from airline schedule changes, lost air ticket, delay, disruption or cancelled flight; lost baggage or missed connections.

Changes: Airline tickets issued by AmaWaterways have restrictions. For example, they cannot be reissued, transferred, or exchanged. Any changes made to an airline ticket, including minor name corrections, will incur a minimum $350 per ticket change fee plus any additional increases in the cost of the airfare. A change or refund request must be made through us, but may not be possible. For example, some airline tickets are non-refundable.

Limitation on Special Requests & Frequent Flier Numbers: As a courtesy, we may try to relay a request for seat assignments, meal requests, frequent flyer numbers, or other special assistance to the particular airline. The sole authority to grant such requests rest with the airline and is not under the control of AmaWaterways. Whether or not we relay a request to an airline, you or your travel agent must always confirm directly with the airline regarding any such requests. To insure you receive proper credit on your frequent flyer account, we recommend you provide your frequent flyer number to the airline at the time of check-in. Please note our airfare prices use special contract fares that may not allow you to receive credit on your frequent flier account nor may they allow you to use miles to upgrade to a higher class.

Baggage: Please check with the airline regarding their baggage allowance. Most airlines limit checked bags to either one or two pieces per person, and limit carry-on baggage to one piece per person, and weight and size restrictions apply. There are strict luggage restrictions for our programs in Africa; please ask for details. We shall not be responsible or liable for costs or consequences of participant exceeding the airline's baggage restrictions, or for loss, theft, damage or delay to participant's baggage.

Airport Transfers: Guests purchasing transoceanic airfare through us may qualify for complimentary group airport transfers on a scheduled arrival between the airport and the ship or hotel, and on a scheduled departure between the hotel or the ship and airport. Airport transfers included in your airfare package will be reflected on your travel confirmation and on your travel documents. If airport transfers are not reflected on your confirmation, AmaWaterways is not responsible for providing airport transfer service to you. Please note: our group airport transfer service may involve some waiting time between the time your flight lands and the time you arrive at the ship or hotel. All guests making their own airfare arrangements are solely responsible for arranging their transportation to/from the airport. Individual airport transfers can be purchased for those guests who are scheduled to arrive/depart on our itinerary dates, please ask for details.

But deviations to planned cruise, cruise & land itinerary or any other aspects of the travel may occur. If conditions make cruise routes unsafe for navigation or in other respects, or raise sufficient doubt about safety, Carrier reserves the right to modify or provide alternate services. These may include, but are not limited to, providing accommodation on the docked ship and/or substituting ground arrangements. An effort will be made to try to arrange elements of the cruise and cruise tour similar to those originally planned, but the level of similarity may vary. Participant is encouraged at time of booking and well before departure, to review participant's health and medical conditions and insurance and consult participant's health care and insurance providers regarding needs and scope of coverage for any incident or need that may occur during travel, and to obtain supplemental health and medical insurance for the travel, as needed.
