OUR STORY

Family-owned and operated, AmaWaterways has been a passion project for its founders since its creation in 2002. President Rudi Schreiner designed his first ship back in 1975 while sailing the Amazon for seven months. Since the completion of the Rhine-Main-Danube Canal in 1992, Rudi has been a driving force for river cruise travel—and for these efforts has been recognized as the “Most Innovative Cruise Executive” and has been presented the prestigious “Lifetime Achievement Award” by Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA).

Executive Vice President, Co-Founder and Co-Owner Kristin Karst brings extensive experience in luxury travel, river cruising and customer service to AmaWaterways. Rudi and Kristin partnered with Jimmy Murphy, a brilliant travel entrepreneur who built Brendan Vacations. His son Gary now carries on his father’s tradition in his role as Vice President of Sales. These families came together to create the premiere travel experience for AmaWaterways’ guests.

Our commitment to this unifying goal is what makes an AmaWaterways river cruise stand out from the rest. While we received the 2016 Cruise Critic Editors’ Picks Award for the “Best River Cruise Line”; the “Travvy Award” for “Best River Cruise Line, Asia”; and were recognized as having the “Highest Rated River Cruise Ships in Europe” by travel authority Berlitz, we never rest on our laurels. AmaWaterways is always humbled by the wonderful accolades we receive, which underscore our whole-hearted dedication to the happiness of each and every guest who travels with us.

The Mighty Mekong
THE MOTHER OF WATER

The Mekong River begins high on the Tibetan plateau and winds its way through China and the rainforests, plains and rice fields of five Southeast Asian countries before meeting the sea. In terms of its historical, cultural and ecological riches, the Mekong - “the Mother of Water” - has no equal. The sagas of ancient empires, colonial powers and modern conflicts have unfolded along the Mekong for centuries. Even today, it is impossible to overstate the river’s importance for the many millions of Vietnamese and Cambodians who live along its vast length. The fortunes of the Mekong Delta and Tonle Sap Lake are inextricably linked and serve as the primary source of life for the people of this incredibly fertile region.

The best way to experience the Mekong is by river cruise, which allows you to fully appreciate the sights and sounds of this fabled and fascinating waterway. From the vantage point of your ship, you can witness the compelling contrast of the modern day river and its ancient past. Sampans and motorboats yield to each other as cone-hatted fishermen check their nets while chatting on cell phones. It is an awe-inspiring spectacle that simply must be seen to be believed. Wherever the Mekong takes you, the sincere warmth and friendliness of the Vietnamese and Cambodian people will leave a lasting impression.

FLOATING VILLAGES, VIVID BIRDWATCHING AND EXHILARATING WILDLIFE

The floating villages that waft over the Tonlé River is its most striking feature. Often vibrant and colorful, these floating houses – along with floating schools, markets, vegetable gardens, barns, karaoke bars and other structures – are constructed above bamboo mats, letting the village rise and fall with the tide’s ebb.

These iconic floating structures also directly connect the villages to the water, from which so much of local life is intertwined. Roughly 90 percent of the local population makes their living by catching fish and tending to the regional agriculture and so the water is often dotted with huge fish traps and local markets.

Sometimes referred to as “the single most important breeding ground in Southeast Asia for globally threatened large water birds,” the Tonlé Sap region is home to roughly 100-150 varieties of waterbirds and between 200-300 species of fish. The fishing industry provides more than half the fish annually consumed throughout Cambodia.

A host of amenities ranging from an onboard spa to a swimming pool provides added comforts for guests to enjoy.

A TASTE OF VIETNAM

SPRING ROLLS WITH DIPPING SAUCE

Goi Cuon (spring rolls) is a Vietnamese dish, bursting with fragrant fresh herbs, rice noodles and a choice of meat, fish or poultry wrapped in rice paper. Spring rolls are easy and fun to make, and the filling possibilities are endless. Depending on the region, they are served with a side of either hoisin sauce or nuoc cham, a Vietnamese dipping sauce made with a fish sauce base.

Ingredients for Spring Rolls (Goi Cuon)
- 10 pc dried rice paper
- 2/3 cup cooked sliced pork / cooked peeled prawns / tofu for vegetarian
- 1/4 cup fresh rice noodle (cooked)
- 1/8 cup vegetables (carrots, bean sprouts and green mango)
- 1/4 cup salad and herbs (mint, basil, coriander and lettuce)
- 1/8 cup chive flower

Ingredients for Fish Sauce Dip (Nuoc Cham)
- 2 tbsp plain fish sauce
- 1 tbsp lime juice
- 4 tbsp hot water
- 2 tbsp sugar
- 1 tbsp red chili finely chopped
- 1 tbsp crushed garlic
- 2 tbsp blended peanut (optional)

Serves 4 to 6 people.

Instructions
1. Dip the rice paper in cold water and put a little of each item mentioned above (salad, fresh noodles, vegetables, pork, prawns or tofu, depending on your taste) in the middle of the rice paper.
2. Fold both ends of the rice paper together in the same direction to make a roll. Half way into folding the roll, add a chive flower for decoration and then continue rolling to the end.
3. To make the dip (Nuoc Cham), simply mix all ingredients together and stir.
4. Decorate the spring rolls with fresh herb and serve with dipping sauce.
The Colorful Contrasts of Vietnam
UNDENIABLY INTRIGUING AND DYNAMIC

One of the world’s great destinations, Vietnam lures us with its incredible beauty, amiable people and rich culture that has endured for centuries. It remains one of the most intriguing and dynamic countries in all of Asia, with landscapes that are as varied as its history. Blessed with a survival instinct that has seen it through many generations of conflict and upheaval, Vietnam has undergone a significant transformation and the growing sense of optimism can be felt throughout much of the country.

While visiting Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City, you’ll experience the ongoing duality of art and commerce, east and west, old and new, progress and tradition, co-existing in the most harmonious ways. You’ll see makeshift food stalls, mopeds zigzagging down city streets and animated vendors selling their wares at lively markets. Just beyond the city limits, however, experience a world entirely apart from urban life while sailing along the Mekong. Here, you’ll get a glimpse into another era; one where people still happily honor the timeless traditions passed down through the centuries from their ancestors. A place where water buffalo roam; women in pastel-colored tunics slowly peddle their bicycles down dusty paths; and children wave to you from wooden houses on bamboo stilts. These experiences add to the many colorful contrasts of Vietnam, and to your lifelong memories.

ETHEREAL HA LONG BAY

Ha Long Bay is considered by many to be the Eighth Natural Wonder of the World, with more than 2,000 small islands rising from emerald green waters like a dragon’s back. AmaWaterways’ guests spend the night aboard an elegantly appointed ship designed with all the modern conveniences to ensure smooth sailing for a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

THE OLD QUARTER, HANOI

Hop on an authentic rickshaw through Hanoi’s bustling Old Quarter with its French Colonial architecture, tranquil lakes and ancient temples.

HO CHI MINH CITY

Vietnam’s largest city is a sensory overload, with fast-paced urban life and culture set against a backdrop of modernization and pockets of French Colonial architecture.
CAPTIVATING AND PRICELESS

Sharing a border with Thailand, Laos and Vietnam, Cambodia has its own distinct allure. The country is still primarily agrarian and recovering from the cruel misfortune that befell it a generation ago. Today, Cambodia is a resurgent nation, attracting visitors from around the world eager to explore its wealth of treasures as the seat of a once-great empire.

Historic capitals, lush river valleys and a traditional water blessing from Buddhist monks are yours to experience. Throughout your journey, you will meet the heart and soul of the country—the people—who have a delightful and well-earned reputation for being genuinely welcoming, friendly and gentle. In a country where nearly the entire population practices Buddhism, raised voices and displays of anger are extremely unusual.

AWE-INSPIRING ANGKOR

Nothing prepares you for your first visit to one of the world’s greatest architectural achievements, Angkor Archaeological Park, a vast UNESCO-designated temple complex once lost under tangled jungle vines. Wandering amongst its ancient ruins, you will see exquisite statues and bas-relief carvings. Explore Angkor’s amazing temples, such as Angkor Wat, Banteay Srei, Angkor Thom, which includes the Terrace of the Elephants and the pyramid temple of Bayon, Ta Prohm and other key sites. You’ll be forever entranced by the “Lost Civilization of Asia,” arguably the most remarkable architectural treasure found anywhere in Southeast Asia.

PHNOM PENH

Experience Phnom Penh, Cambodia’s colorful capital, via an authentic tuk tuk ride. Discover its many treasures, including the Royal Palace, Silver Pagoda and National Museum.

TRADITIONAL APSARA DANCING

Be treated to the traditional dance of the Cambodian people, Apsara. Dating back to the Angkorean era, this classical performance is best described as graceful and sophisticated.
AUTHENTIC EXPERIENCES

Immerse yourself in the local culture and heritage of Vietnam and Cambodia as you are transported back in time to another era—one where you’ll experience the beauty of traditional life along the Mekong Delta and the Tonle Sap River. Authentic experiences in rural villages unspoiled by tourism offer you a chance to delve deeply into this life and to witness the time-honored methods of skilled artisans who create exquisite handicrafts and delicacies.

In Cai Be, visit with local skilled artisans who make everything from rice paper and rice wine to traditional rice candy. Take an exhilarating trishaw ride down the streets of Tan Chau, stopping at sites like the colorful Cao Dai Temple, along with visits to traditional silk-weaving and mat-making workshops. Discover Koh Chen where residents have been practicing the art of silver- and copper-making over so many generations they cannot remember its source. These are only a few of the many adventures you’ll experience on this life-enriching journey.

GIVING BACK, AMAWATERWAYS CAMBODIAN SCHOOL PROJECT

AmaWaterways proudly sponsors the ODA (Opportunities of Development thru Art) Free Village English School outside of Siem Reap, Cambodia. Our financial support helped build the school and we continue to provide funds for teachers’ salaries, school supplies and other necessities. The school brings critical English-language skills to local children and also serves as a community center for nearby residents of all ages.

Guests who tour the Angkor Archaeological Park as part of their Mekong River cruise-and-land itineraries have a unique opportunity to visit this school and interact with the children. In fact, many bring their own donations, such as notepads and pencils, to help support the project.

Our guests derive much enjoyment from visiting this remarkable part of the world, and many are very touched by the warmth of the Cambodian people. We have received numerous emails from guests saying how inspiring it was to be in such a poverty-stricken place, yet surrounded by smiling children who seemed to think they had everything they could possibly want in the world.

All of us at AmaWaterways are equally inspired by these delightful children and are honored to be involved with such a worthwhile, life-changing project as the ODA Free Village English School.

After reserving your cruise, please visit www.amawaterways.com/cruise-check-in to complete your online cruise check-in and to register for your visit to the AmaWaterways-sponsored English school, as the school visit is capacity controlled.

HELPING FROM HOME

Guests often ask if there is something they can bring from home to donate to the ODA Free Village English School during their visit. If you are interested in making a contribution, we suggest basic personal hygiene products or school supplies, such as toothpaste, soap, shampoo, pencils, erasers, pens, chalk, small notebooks, Post-It notes, dry-erase markers and highlighters.
